

Teig Johansen

Software Engineering Internship

Profile

Highly motivated and detail-oriented Computer Science student with a passion for solving complex problems by applying creative solutions. Strong logical mindset that thrives in an environment that challenges analytical skills. Eager to learn and grow through hands-on experience, with the primary goal of turning experience into a long-term software development career. Recent experience with Node.js and familiar with SQL database technology.

Contact Information

- (801) 440-1194
- teigjohansen@gmail.com
- Located in Magna, Utah

Skills

- Java, C# (.NET), HTML/CSS/JavaScript, Bootstrap, Python, Django, Node.js, Express, Bash, Powershell
- Version control: Git, Github
- Familiar with Object-oriented programming, problem solving, testing, debugging, data structures and algorithms

Education

Current:

Bachelor of Science program at Weber State University, majoring Computer Science and set to graduate in summer of 2026, current institutional GPA: 3.97

Finished:

Associate of Science in Computer Science and Information Systems Honors from Salt Lake Community College, 2024, 3.79 GPA

Certificate of Proficiency in Software Development from Salt Lake Community College, 2024

Projects*

Community Events platform website built with Django and deployed through Heroku
Django Rest Framework Library Management API for Books, Authors, and Loans
Prototype Express/Node.js/MySQL Reservation Management System for Famcamp Hill Air Force Base

Work Experience

Tool Rental Associate at The Home Depot, West Valley City, UT
June 2022 - January 2023

Overnight Freight Associate at The Home Depot, West Valley City, UT
March 2020 - May 2021

Github repositories are required to be private for academic integrity*